A HISTORICAL

OPENING DAY 1922

The Warfield was San Francisco's original Vaudeville and Movie Palace.

All the big names in entertainment played on the Warfield stage, including Marion McDonald from Gone with the Wind and Charlie Chaplin.

1979-2008

New life came to The Warfield in 1979 when Bob Dylan played a two-week run of shows. Keeping with its illustrious past, the entertainment in the 1980s ranged from bands such as The Clash and Grateful Dead to U2. The venerable hall been rocking ever since.

2008-present

Now operated by AEG Presents/Goldenvoice (the creator of Coachella and Stagecoach festivals)

Epic concerts and legendary Special Events continue to take place in this iconic space.

| ALLURING | LOOKS

The interior is movie palace ornate – giving a feeling of vintage glamour and luxury.

The Lobby features gilded ceilings, marble and chandeliers, opening to a grand staircase to the balcony level.

The Main Theater features a lyrical mural above the proscenium arch painted by Albert Herter. The mural contains images of floating matadors and their señoritas.

The stage balconies feature intricately carved pillars that still hold today, decorated with rows of astounding swiveled wooden spirals.

ICONIC BACKSTAGE COMPLEX

Vaudeville shows typically had many acts, and it is reflected by the 20 rooms in the backstage area.

(7) Green Rooms, including:

Jerry Garcia Room - a second home to the legendary Grateful Dead icon

Autograph Room - one of the Warfield's hidden gems. The walls have been collecting signatures from almost every performer who has graced The Warfield stage.
